The gardens,
And all in between...

But what about the shooters bar?
Yes, Susan Rodger, I went that far.

Because,

And all in between...
Just cannot distract me
From getting that green.

"Unexpected indent at line 32"

Just comment it out,
I say with a pout.
There must be a way

To make the red go away.

Overcome by gloom.

My computer tucked away

For the rest of the day.

But, wait, that's it!

It's easy as shit.

Python is fun!
