

An Example of How Compsci Has Taught Me to Bottle Up My Emotions

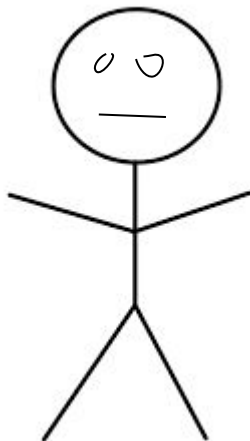

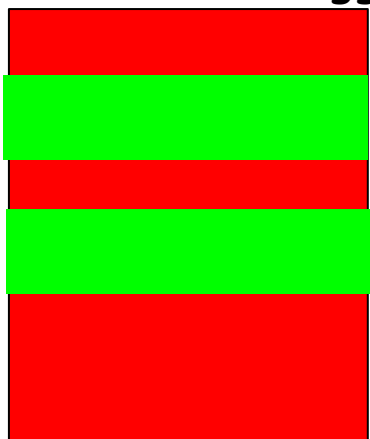

Me when I'm too scared and overwhelmed to even start the assignment

Me when I finally lock in and spend 5 grueling hours on the assignment but still fail everything

Me when I still fail parts of the Assignment on gradescope after 2 more hours debugging

Me when I finally pass all parts of the assignment on gradescope but forget I have to complete the hand-graded portion still.
