Come one, come all, to Compsci 101

Where coding is fun and so much learning is done

If you've ever been curious about the tech world

This is the perfect place to let your mind unfurl

With algorithms and data sets galore

You'll become a master of computing and more

From tuples to lists, we cover it all

And before you know it, you'll be having a ball

Our professors are top-notch, experts in their field

And they're always willing to help, no matter what you wield

Whether it's your first time coding or you're a pro

Compsci 101 is the place to go!
